The stone means Christ Himself; the builders are the teachers of the Jews who rejected Him as if He were useless, saying, "Thou art a Samaritan and hast a demon." But when He rose from the dead, He was set in place as the head of the corner, that is, He became the head of the Church, joining Jews and Gentiles in one faith. For as the stone which forms the corner of a building makes continuous the walls leading to and from it, so Christ has bound all together in one faith. This corner is marvelous, and is the Lord's doing. [See Ps. 117:22-23] For the Church which connects us and makes us one in faith is the Lord's doing, and is worthy of all wonder, so well is it built.

GLORY TO GOD FOREVER!

Welcome! Welcome to all of our visitors and guests who have participated with us at the celebration of the Divine Liturgy. Please join us at our fellowship hour directly after Liturgy. Also, please sign our guest book in the back of the church if you would like to be put in our parish mailing list.

Please note: Only Orthodox Christians who have properly prepared themselves through fasting from midnight the night before, prayer, have had a recent confession and have attended the Divine Liturgy from at LEAST the reading from Holy Gospel should approach the chalice "with fear and love" for communion.

Church School: Educating our children is very important as it helps them understand and articulate their faith. We will be planning on beginning Church School this September. We are in the need of teachers to help teach, specifically for the teens. Please let Julie Gresko know if you are interested in helping. We will have a meeting this Tuesday at 7pm to discuss the curriculum.

Choir Rehearsals: We have begun choir rehearsals. There may be some new music. Those in the congregation, please listen and hear what is being sung before singing.

- We will be singing "Grant this O Lord" instead of "Grant it." If you have any questions about this change please speak with Fr. Andrew.

100th Anniversary: Our next Centennial Celebration meeting will be after fellowship hour on Sunday, September 17th.
